

N&M and AHP Self-Assessment Team

SAT member	Job title	FT/ PT	Role within Athena Swan SAT	Work Life Balance Experience
Dr John Albarran 	Associate Professor and Associate Head of Department for Research and Knowledge Exchange	FT	I am the lead Athena SWAN representative for the Department of Nursing and Midwifery. Core SAT member	I trained as a nurse and have been in full-time employment since 1977 and joined UWE Bristol in 1993. I have four children ranging from 19 to 29 years of age
Shan Aguilar-Stone 	Programme Leader BSc (Hons) Physiotherapy	FT	I am a representative for the Department of Allied Health Professions New SAT member	I am a registered physiotherapist and joined UWE Bristol in 2003, after a career break. I had joint caring responsibilities for my school aged son and recently some caring responsibilities for my mother.
Angie Bambery 	Lecturer in Radiotherapy and Oncology	PT	Joined June 2016	I am a therapy radiographer who joined UWE Bristol in February 2015. I'm currently undertaking an MSc in Clinical Oncology. I'm a single parent to a primary school age child and I work 0.7 WTE.
Mandy Bancroft 	Health and Life Science Lead for Widening Participation	FT	SAT member	I am a registered mental health nurse. I joined UWE Bristol in 2000 and have developed through that time moving from part-time to full time as my children grew up.

Sarah Bennet 	PhD student: Allied Health Professions	PT	I am a student representative for Athena SWAN for the Department of Allied Health Professions.	I started my part-time PhD in 2014 and am employed by UWE Bristol as a Resident Mentor. I also work for the Quality Assurance Agency (QAA) as a Higher Education Student Reviewer.
Dr Mary Cramp 	Associate Head of Department (Research and Knowledge Exchange)	FT	I am the lead Athena SWAN representative for the Department of Allied Health Professions Core SAT member	I joined UWE Bristol in June 2013 having worked in academia for the majority of my career. I've had to balance my career with my husband's and work in geographically distant areas for extended periods.
Lauren Davis 	Healthcare Training Resources Manager	FT	I am a representative for the Technical Department	I am a registered Operating Department Practitioner and joined UWE Bristol Technical Services since 2013. I have two children aged 6 and 9. I work full time and share parental responsibilities with my partner.
Emma Dures 	Senior Research Fellow in Rheumatology	FT	As a member of UWE staff based off campus, I represent clinical-based research	I completed my PhD in 2009 and am a fulltime researcher. I have a partner and two adult children. I began my career late, as I was parenting and studying when my children were younger.
Dr Sally Dowling 	Senior Lecturer, Nursing and Midwifery	FT	Core SAT member	I joined UWE Bristol in 2009, part-time and from January 2015, full-time. I have shared caring responsibilities for my two school-age daughters with my partner. I also extend caring responsibilities to my grandchild for my eldest.

Jo Jones 	Programme Lead, Midwifery	FT	Joined SAT in June 2016	I have been working full time at UWE Bristol since 2012 and have experienced balancing work based commitments and career development alongside a busy home life with my husband and my sons aged 19 and 8.
Alexander Mormoris 	BME Project worker	FT	SAT Member	I have worked at UWE Bristol since late 2013 previous to this I studied at the university. I have been attached to the institution all in all since 2010. I do not have any dependants.
Professor Shea Palmer 	Professor	FT	Core SAT member	I joined UWE Bristol in July 2005, and was appointed as Professor in 2012. My roles include developing research activity, and appraisal and mentorship for research active staff. I have three children aged under 10 years
Dr Adrusha Ramsunder 	Lecturer	FT	SAT member	I am a Pharmacist who joined UWE Bristol in April 2015 after moving to the UK in 2008. I work full time and am a single parent with main carer responsibilities for my 5 year old.

Evanthia Triantafyllidou 	Awards Officer	PT	Athena SWAN Awards Officer	I joined UWE Bristol in February 2016 as the Athena Swan Awards Officer working 4 days a week. I also work at Bristol University. I am undertaking postgraduate studies and have a 5 year old daughter.
Dr Julie Woodley 	Senior Lecturer and chair of Faculty Ethics Committee	FT	SAT Member	I am a state registered Radiographer with 20 years' experience in higher education. I have dealt with balancing childcare with work activities and caring for my children who are now 17 and 19.