

Pre-sessional English language courses

Pre-sessional English language courses

Our Pre-sessional English language courses are designed for international students who need to achieve the required level of English language to undertake a course of higher education at UWE Bristol.

As well as English language skills, our Pre-sessional English language course will familiarise you with all aspects of studying and living in the UK including:

- Understanding lectures and academic texts.
- Writing academic assignments.
- Presentation skills.
- Working in groups and individually.
- UK culture.
- Assessment preparation.
- Social activities.

You will be taught by highly qualified and experienced language teachers. Dedicated tutors will have regular meetings with you to discuss your work and progress. Most students will attend classes Monday to Friday for up to six hours a day. This may vary depending on the duration of the course.

Upon successful completion you will be able to progress onto your degree at UWE Bristol.

FREE two week English Language and Academic Culture

All EU and international fee-paying students holding an unconditional offer with UWE Bristol can attend our two week English Language and Academic Culture course FREE of charge.

This is the perfect way to get to know UWE Bristol and the city of Bristol and settle into university life before your lectures start.
