

Media Coverage Summary 11-17 March 2017

Press releases

Africa Week: a celebration of diversity, heritage and progress

National awards victory for UWE Bristol careers service

Graduate Filmmaker nominated for RTS West of England Award

Double nomination in prestigious international sustainability awards

UWE Bristol and The Students' Union record best ever results at SW Fairtrade Business Awards

Student paramedic conference recreates medical emergencies

Researchers to develop 'wearable' robotic tools for surgery

UWE Bristol and Watershed launch Creative Producer MA/MFA

Bristol's independent film and TV companies generated £140.3 million in 2016

Coverage

Neehao – Education and training exports seen as key to successful Anglo-Chinese relations

Bristol Post – From Poldark to planet earth Bristol's film and TV industry generates more than £140m in 12 months

EurekAlert! – Researchers to develop 'wearable' robotic tools for surgery

Mail Online – Scientists develop robo-hands worn by surgeons

The Guardian - Google DeepMind makes AI program that can learn like a human

The Korea Herald - Online echo chambers need puncturing to fight gender-based violence: experts

TechSpark - How one UWE Bristol researcher's work led to AI gloves that control sound

South West Business – Dealing with stats in a data rich world

NEI Magazine – Universities to develop robots for nuclear sites

Times Higher – Research figures highlight Brexit vulnerability

The Engineer – Video of the Week – wearable robotic tools for keyhole surgery

Monthly published coverage totals for February 2017

Total articles published in February - 432

Total circulation – 75,025,146

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £448,298

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Follow us

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Copyright 2016 © UWE Bristol