

Media Coverage Summary 18-24 March 2017

Press releases

UWE Bristol celebrates Royal Television Society West of England Awards

Fashion student honoured by the Worshipful Company of Framework Knitters

Virtual Futures: Where is Virtual Reality taking us?

UWE students study conservation in Madagascar

Coverage

Daily Mail – Bad Breath? You could be talking too much

Nursing Times - 'Unique' assistant practitioner apprenticeship launched to plug mental health skills gap

Design Product and Applications – Wearable robotic tools designed for surgery

Bristol Post – Southmead nurse saved life of 'stabbed man' staggering into road

Bristol Business News – MA programme to create next generation of creative producers launched by UWE and Watershed

Bristol Business News – West star rises as location for TV and film industry challenges lie ahead

Broadcast

Professor Lyndon Smith (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about research work being carried out in the Centre for Machine Vision.

Professor Graham Parkhurst (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about driverless cars and the effect they will have on transport and the future of public transport.

Dr Finn Mackay (HAS) was an invited speaker on BBC One Big Question talking about the politics of forgiveness.

Dr Sanja Dogramadzi (FET) was interviewed by BBC World Service and BBC Radio Wales about wearable robotics.

Monthly published coverage totals for February 2017

Total articles published in February - 432

Total circulation – 75,025,146

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £448,298

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

