

Media Coverage Summary 22-28 July 2017

Press Releases

UWE Bristol expert says banning petrol and diesel cars is symbolically important

New vision for West of England launched at UWE Bristol

National report shows that cycling in Greater Bristol up 40%

In the media ...

Bristol Post reported on the vision for the West of England launched by LEP at the Faculty of Business and Law.

Professor Graham Parkhurst (FET) was interviewed by Made in Bristol TV and 4-Traders.com about the government announcement to ban petrol and diesel cars as of 2040.

Steve Wright (FET) has provided commentary recently about drones;
SMMT - How drones and electric robovans will transform last-mile deliveries
Institute of Mechanical Engineers – Drones with wheels could be a faster route to flyer cars, Drones transformation from expensive toy to powerful tool

Electronics World – Prize winning underwater robot

The Anchor Society – Award for outstanding services

Digital Art Online – Best of Grad Shows 2017 University of the West of England

On a light-hearted note a video clip taken by a proud father who filming the wrong girl at his daughters Graduation last week went viral appearing on amongst other; BBC Online, Daily Mail, Metro; Mirror, Bristol24/7 and Indian Express.

Monthly published coverage totals for June 2017

Total articles published in June - 484

Total circulation – 64,128,718

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £439,898

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

