

Media Summary 22-27 November 2015

Coverage

The Planner – City regions - devolution deception or local revolution?

The News – Zafrullah to head separate ministry of human rights

Arts Professional – Research leads evaluation framework arts and health

The Economist – The real future of electronic literature

Injury Prevention - Risk and protective factors for falls on one level in young children: multicentre case-control study

Bristol Post – Weston-super-Mare step closer to becoming a university town

Brisbane Times – eWaste the catastrophe lurking in our computers

The Washington Post – Barclays Chose Web Search Over Risk Check on 'Elephant' Deal

The Independent – Launching a business before leaving university

The Independent – The damaging impact of traffic on our health

Broadcast

ITV News interviewed student nurses on Glenside Campus for their opinions on the charging student nurses £9,000 tuition fees.

Sue Ollis, Student Support Adviser was interviewed on BBC Radio 5 Lives 'Your Call', Sue who is a Time to Change Champion within UWE spoke to Nicky Campbell about issues around mental health awareness particularly in the workplace. Listen here from 48 minutes.

Professor Stephen Hoskins, Centre for Fine Print Research appeared on Channel 4's Posh Pawnbrokers. Stephen gave his expert knowledge of 3D printers.