

Media Summary 4 – 17 July

Coverage

Eastbourne Herald – Brittany's ewe-nique sculpture for Shaun – Illustration Alumni Brittany Moulinex

New York Times – Experts divided on makeup and treatment of muscle knots – Article by Dr Rob Grieve (HAS)

Property Week – Barratt completes Bristol university buy – comment by Bill Marshall (Pro VC)

Independent – UWE Bristol and Bristol Zoo linkup to create new MSc Course in advanced wildlife conservation

Insidermedia – University campus to be redeveloped after sale - comment by Bill Marshall (Pro VC)

Bristol Post - Bristol Rovers chairman says staying at the Memorial Ground is not a long-term option
BBC Online – Timeline: Bristol Rovers' stadium supermarket campaign
– latest Stadium update

South West Business - Why are so many young people jobless when skilled graduates are in demand, asks Jo Midgeley of UWE Bristol – comment by Jo Midgeley (Deputy VC)

Gazette Series – UWE wins silver award for supporting small business

Bristol Post – Where you live in Bristol has a big impact on how likely you are to go to university
- comment by Keith Hicks, Corporate Relations

Times Higher – Northumbria University quits University Alliance – comment by Professor Steve West (VC)

Swindon Advertiser – Award nomination for GWH course which helps staff return to work – promoting health courses

Northampton News – New university campus good for town – comment by Professor Robin Hamblton (FET)

Business Leaders - Let's work it out business leaders tell council chiefs – comment by Professor Steve West (VC)

RT.com - New Tory govt doubles planned cuts in massive attack on welfare state
comment by Dr Jo Michell (FBL)

Family Law - IVF treatment and consent: the rights of the individual and the public interest
by Susan Heenan (FBL)

The Dominion Post New Zealand – Psychological damage can linger long after flood waters recede – mentions Dr Jessica Lamond (FET)

Broadcast

Dr Corra Boushel (BRL) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol Breakfast Show on 17 July discussing the 'Make It Digital' event.

Made in Bristol came to UWE on 17 July to interview Ben Knight and students about the forthcoming trip to South Africa to help Project Zulu.

Dr Chris Alford (HAS) was interviewed on the BBC Radio Bristol Breakfast Show on 10 July discussing sleep walking and related sleep behaviours, following on from the interesting case of Marie Lord who woke up in the sea at Weston-Super-Mare having apparently sleep-walked a quarter of a mile from her home.