

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team 1 – 7 February 2014

Press and online coverage

Tuesday 4 February

Insider Media Update - Development bank plan gains scant support

<http://www.insidermedia.com/insider/wales/107674-development-bank-plan-gains-scant-support>

Wednesday 5 February

Bristol Post – Limited edition charity t-shirts on sale at Bristol's Beast Clothing

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/Limited-edition-charity-T-shirts-sale-Bristol-s/story-20566225-detail/story.html>

Thursday 6 February

BBC Online - Bristol 18th Century slave ledger unveiled

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-england-bristol-26046267>

Bristol Post – Notebook gives chilling insight into slave trade

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/CHILLING-INSIGHT-SLAVE-TRADE/story-20569759-detail/story.html>

Western Daily Press – Meet the MD happy with hangers on

<http://www.westerndailynews.co.uk/Meet-MD-happy-hangers/story-20570310-detail/story.html>

Friday 7 February

Daily Mail – Secrets of the slave trade revealed: Merchant's notebook sheds new light on how men were treated as commodities

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/sciencetech/article-2552473/Bristol-merchant-Cranfield-Bechers-notebook-shows-slaves-treated.html>

South West Business – Missionly helps to link Bristol students and business

<http://www.southwestbusiness.co.uk/news/06022014140226-missionly-helps-to-link-bristol-students-and-business/>

Media Appearances

Dr Madge Dresser has done interviews this week with BBC Radio Bristol, BBC Online and ITV West about the discovery of a new book shedding light on Bristol's slave history.

Geoff Cole was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about UWE Bristol's reciprocal library borrowing scheme.

BBC's 'Bang Goes The Theory' were filming in the Centre for Machine Vision this week - Dr Mark Hansen demonstrated 3D face mapping through the Photoface device. The item is scheduled to be broadcast in March.