

Media Summary 13 – 19 June

UWE Bristol News

UWE Lawyers contribute to rethinking child protection strategy

Bristol celebrates the Green Capital's first Student Change Maker awards

UWE Bristol students evaluating energy use and recycling management at Glastonbury Festival

Coverage

Somerset County Gazette – Somerset steps up the commitment to recruit talented Social Workers

Bristol Post – What a difference a year makes: 30-year-old gains place on UWE Biomedical Science course

The Weston Mercury – Students volunteer to clear litter on the beach

ESRC – Child protection and assessment

Creative Blog – New talent UWE creative industries degree show

Bristol Post – Water for thought: Collection of water comes to Bristol as part of Big Green Week

Gazette Series - Yate and Chipping Sodbury cyclists over 50 sought for research project

Broadcast

Dr John Hancock (HAS) was interviewed for a new series of 'Duck Quacks Don't Echo' on Sky 1, he was an expert for an experiment they conducted that found viagra increased the shelf life of plants.