

Media Summary 16 – 20 February

Coverage

Times Higher Education - Diversity driving demand for university mental health services

Engadget – The future of driverless cars is being shaped by a modified Land Rover

Western Daily Press - Bristol's Open Bionics named with Google, Dyson and Panasonic

ITV West - Bristol robotics firm gets international recognition

Bristol Post - Bristol robotics start-up Open Bionics named alongside Google and Dyson as one to watch in 2015

Wired - Why our roboticists are working for the 99 percent

Phys Org – Debt anxiety among students differs across international boundaries

Western Daily Press – Oil industry leader Peter Mather a cool customer

South West Business – Bristol Distinguished Address Series - Peter Mather: BP's group regional vice president, Europe and head of country, UK.

South West Business - Regional Growth Fund hands out £47 million grants to Bristol and South West businesses

Health Canal - Children and young people to get more say in their health care

Gazette Series - Children with life-limiting illnesses across the South West use "empowering" new health care assessment tool

Transportxtra.com - Active travel teams view the road ahead

Bristol Post - War heroes' discarded graves at Arnos VAle Cemetery to be returned to Soldiers' Corner

Media Appearances

Dr Praminda Caleb-Solly was interviewed by BBC Radio 4 – 'You and Yours' about how robots can help patients with dementia. Listen again - ow.ly/JjPH5 at 21:12.

She was also interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about the robotic porters used at Southmead Hospital.

Dr Jo Barnes will be talking about air quality on BBC Radio 4's Costing the Earth next Tuesday 24 Feb <http://bbc.in/1AKT1Ah>. She has also given interviews to BBC Newsround, BBC Points West and BBC Radio Bristol to be broadcast next week.

Dr Nicky Harris was interviewed by Jack FM about the announcement that UWE has been selected as one of 7 new sites in the UK to develop Patient Centred Outcome Measures (POCMs) for children and young people.

UWE graduate and mountaineer Mollie Hughes was interviewed on BBC 1's The One Show. Show.
Watch again 25:00 <http://ow.ly/Jj5go>