

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team – 16 September 2013

Press Releases

From boring to brilliant: UWE student transforms Webmart's reception area

<http://info.uwe.ac.uk/news/uwenews/news.aspx?id=2638>

UWE Students' Union and UWE Bristol welcomes students to biggest-ever Freshers' Fair

<http://info.uwe.ac.uk/news/uwenews/news.aspx?id=2639>

UWE researchers help develop charter on women, ageing and the media

<http://info.uwe.ac.uk/news/uwenews/news.aspx?id=2640>

Press and online coverage

Monday 16 September

The Guardian – Meet the New Generation of Robots... they're almost human

<http://www.theguardian.com/technology/2013/sep/15/robot-almost-human-icub>

Thursday 19 September

Times Higher Education – Cable: relax work rules facing overseas graduates

<http://www.timeshighereducation.co.uk/news/cable-relax-work-rules-facing-overseas-graduates/2007481.article>

The Guardian - Head to head: how can we address the challenges of joint police procurement?

<http://www.theguardian.com/public-leaders-network/2013/sep/19/joint-police-procurement-head-to-head>

Media Appearances

Dr Madge Dresser was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol re her recent book about Slavery and Country Houses.

Dr June Hannam was interviewed by BBC Radio 4 'Womans Hour' about the talk she is giving at the Peace History Conference on 20 September at the Institute of Historical Research

Jack FM have plugged the UWE Bristol 'biggest ever' Freshers fair every day this week in preparation for Friday's big event.