

UWE Bristol News Summary 17 – 30 May 2014

UWE Bristol News

Monday 19 May

Bristol Post - UWE performances to bring back to life two historic executions

Wednesday 21 May

Bristol Post - University of the West of England teams up with Bristol firm Integrity Business Connections.

Bristol Post - UWE Bristol opens office in Guangzhou, China

South West Business - University of the West of England teams up with Bristol firm Integrity Business Connections

Thursday 22 May

Machinery Mark - Easyjet to use UAVs to inspect its fleet

Architects Journal – AJ100 #10: Hattie Hartman on Stride Treglown

Friday 23 May

Bristol Post – Bristol universities help fuel building boom

Onrec – Bristol based recruitment agency boosted with army of new UWE interns

Monday 26 May

Gazette Series – Uley student snaps up dream job working with remote control helicopters

Tuesday 27 May

Bristol Headlines – OmniDynamics launch crowdfunding campaign to support innovative 3D printer accessory

Wednesday 28 May

Dorset Echo - Dorset County Museum talk to focus on Thomas Hardy's landscapes

South West Business – Former UWE student Tom Anderson-Dixon's drinks sachets business idea squash stix takes off

InsiderMedia – Bristol students turn to the crowd to market 3D printer idea

TechCrunch - Strooder Turns Cheap Plastic Pellets Into 3D Printer Filament

3D Printer World – Home Filament Extrusion In A User-Friendly Package – Strooder on Kickstarter

Inside 3DP - Meet Strooder: The Compact Device That Raised £20,000 in 24h

Bristol Post – UWE graphic design student wins architecture magazine cover competition

Friday 30 May

Bristol Post – Bursary announced in honour of brave Eleanor

Bristol Post – Students blossom whilst helping community groups with IT solutions

Media Appearances

Dr Lisa Harrison was interviewed on BBC Radio Bristol and BBC Somerset about the European Elections.