

Media Summary 18- 24 April

Coverage

Reuters India – Pee-powered toilet to light up disaster zone

The Globe and Mail – Army base where Canadians trained in the great war faces wrecking ball

South West Business – BDEA Sir Peter Bazalgette Chair of Arts Council England

Media Appearances

Dr Lisa Harrison from ACE has been giving interviews this week in the lead-up to the General Election, Lisa was interviewed by BBC News Channel about the electoral profile of the Bristol West seat. Lisa was also interviewed by BBC Somerset about voter registration, analysing the number of people who have registered to vote in comparison to the previous General Election and looking at traditionally who doesn't bother to register or vote and why.

Professor Ioannis Ieropoulos from BRL had his 'pee-power' project featured on Globo TV Brazil's leading TV network.

Janet Askew from FET was recently interviewed by BBC Radio Oxford about planning for the provision of infrastructure and community facilities in new developments.

Amy Slater from the Centre for Appearance Research, is providing an interview to Maverick TV who are developing a new series for BBC Three. The series looks at young people's relationships with their bodies in the digital age, in particular looking at the rise of the selfie, the dangers of wearable fitness technology and the easy availability of diet and steroid pills online.

Nursing Graduate Lauren Morton is currently appearing on the Channel 4 series The Island with Bear Grylls, the programme goes out weekly on Thursday evenings at 9.00pm.