

Media Summary 23-29 May

UWE Bristol News

Professor Jo Barnes gets scientific on her 'Soapbox'

Bristol robotics entrepreneurs selected by top US hardware accelerator

UWE Music Research goes on International Tour with Pop Star Ariana Grande

UWE Bristol researchers want to talk to groups about management drought in Cornwall

Student volunteers help at Big Beach Clean

Why do people in later life give up cycling? Get involved with Cycle BOOM research project

Award successes for UWE Bristol Graphic Design students

Coverage

The London Standard – Alumni – Daniel Van Gelder the London property developer who shies away from the superrich

Bristol Post – Alumni – I'm Staying – statement art moves across the city for the fourth time

Bristol Post – Childhood obesity number of obese children doubles

Medical News Today – 'Pee-powered' toilet could be game-changer for refugee camps

News AM - Analyst: Outright conflict dominates relationship between EU and Russia

Pirate FM – A new study into water drought in Cornwall

The Visitor Magazine – Chard, Ilminster and Crewkerne residents set to benefit from £334,000 activity

Media News Today – Prosthetic hands, robotic trousers and biosensors - £5.3 million for healthcare tech research

Bristol Post – New study looks at what puts over 50s off cycling