

Media Summary 24 – 30 October 2015

Coverage

BBC Online - UK population 'to top 70 million in 12 years'

Daily Mail – That’s one way to get on the property ladder! Couple build tiny cabin from scrap for just £1,000 so they can save for a deposit

Business leader - Biggest names in business come together to launch new SME Directors course

Huffington Post – Once upon a time in the west

Waste Management World – UK university project to cut C&D waste through Design for Reuse Recycling

World Cement – Construction research project could limit landfill

Wales Online – Welsh twitterati – the most influential twitter users inside wales

Yahoo – Smartphones checked 85 times a day and users don’t realise it

Medical News Today – How we use our smartphones twice as much as we think

Daily Mirror – How many times a day do you really check your phone

The Engineer – A spoonful of liquid crystals makes the medicine go down

England Rugby News – Unique achievement for top level coaches at Hartpury graduation

Professional Security – Cyber Training Camp

Bristol Post – Bristol Animation firm seeks backing for new venture

Broadcast

Professor Jim Longhurst recorded an interview with the Marjan Television Network about air pollution.

Made in Bristol TV came to Glenside campus to interview Ruth Avery, a graduate from UWE who was named Student Radiographer (Diagnostic Imaging) of the Year by the Society and College of Radiographers.