

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team – 25 November 2013

Press and online coverage

Monday 25 November

South West Business – Bristol distinguished executive address series

<http://www.southwestbusiness.co.uk/video/22112013124823-video--bristol-distinguished-executive-address-series--rupert-soames--group-chief-executive-of-ftse-100-firm-aggreko--discusses-the-energy-crunch/>

Tuesday 26 November

News.AM - Russia's major bargaining chip appears to be cheap delivery of oil and gas – Dr Gunter Walzenbach

<http://news.am/eng/news/182515.html>

Western Daily Press - Bristol, an inconvenient city – Clara Greed

<http://www.westerndailynews.co.uk/Bristol-inconvenient-city/story-20221103-detail/story.html>

Wednesday 27 November

Sky News Australia – Study shows dangers of 'hangover' driving – Chris Alford

<http://www.skynews.com.au/health/article.aspx?id=928497>

Canberra Times – Hangovers worse than driving drunk – Chris Alford

<http://canberratimes.drive.com.au/motor-news/hangovers-worse-than-driving-drunk-study-20131127-2y98a.html>

ABC.net – Drinking hungover more dangerous than drink driving study – Chris Alford

<http://www.abc.net.au/news/2013-11-27/driving-hungover-more-dangerous-than-drink-driving-study/5118878>

Thursday 28 November

Eurograduate - UWE Bristol runs new course for budding entrepreneurs – Carol Jarvis

<http://www.eurograduate.com/article.asp?id=4577&pid=2>

South West Business and Western Daily Press – Students start revolutionary degree course at UWEs Bristol Business School – Carol Jarvis

<http://www.southwestbusiness.co.uk/news/28112013084614-students-start-revolutionary-degree-course-at-uwe-s-bristol-business-school/>

<http://www.westerndailynews.co.uk/Students-start-revolutionary-degree-course/story-20232566-detail/story.html>

Phys.org – Robots may receive urine-powered artificial 'hearts' - Dr Ioannis Ieropoulos

<http://phys.org/news/2013-11-robots-urine-powered-artificial-hearts.html>

Media appearance

Paul Gough was interviewed on BBC Radio Somerset on 26 November about the importance of memorials to conflict. This marked the unveiling of a bust of Henry Allingham, one of the longest surviving veterans of World War One, at RNAS Yeovilton.

Professor Alan Tapp appeared on Football's Loyal Fans on BBC Radio 4 discussing what makes football fans so loyal.

Clara Greed was commissioned to write an 800 word editorial for the Western Daily Press.

Paul Gough appeared on You and Yours on BBC Radio 4 discussing, 'Is a degree the best route to getting the career you want?'

Dr Tom Mitchell is being interviewed by Bristol Community FM on Saturday morning about the 'danceroom Spectroscopy'.

Dr Chris Nash appeared on 'The One Show' discussing the subject of 'wine glass acoustics'.

Dr Chris Alford was interviewed by Australia's 'Today Show', ABC News Radio and JJJ News about the dangers of driving whilst hungover.