

Media Summary 26 Sept – 9 October 2015

Coverage

Bristol Post – Finalist announced for Green Capital Award

The Diplomat Bucharest - UKTI showcases in Bucharest its GREAT expertise in green technologies

Bristol Post – Bristol rugbys Nick Koster and wife Jeannie play host to choirls from South African Township

BBC Online – South African township children's choir earns £970 in 90 minute busk

Guardian – Labour's mixed message on austerity risk falling into Osborne's trap

Western Morning News – Still tickets left for Innovation in the 2015 European Green Capital Seminar

Telegraph – Bristol and Baths tech wonderland beats Banksys Dismaland

The Borneo Post - GES introduces top UK universities

Swindon Business News – New network aims to promote innovation in regions life sciences and healthcare sectors

Business Leader – Event to showcases Bristols track record in green innovation

Guardian – Universities are reaching out but some disadvantaged students remain hidden

Daily Mail – What being a drug addict REALLY does to your face: Woman who started smoking cannabis at 11 and was hooked on coke by 23 reveals how she turned her life around

Western Daily Press – Networks key growth conference

Broadcast

Dr Shawn Sobers (ACE) was interviewed by Made In Bristol TV about Black History Month.

Project Zulu and UWE were featured on BBC Radio Bristol Saturday Morning Phil Hammond show. To listen in skip to 2:44:50 - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p032014v#play>, they were also mentioned on BBC Points West, BCFM and BBC Radio Somerset.

Nicola Stock (CAR) was about cleft palate research on ITV West Country and Breeze FM – see link

Dr Chris Alford was interviewed by Downtown Radio Cool FM, talking about the strange things we do when we sleep and giving tips on getting a better night's sleep.

Dr Kieran McCartan was interviewed by Vanessa Feltz on BBC Radio London talking about where registered sex offenders lives after prison.