

Media Summary 30 May – 12 June

UWE Bristol News

Bristol Post - Can you support fascinating photographic project documenting characters of East Street, Bedminster?

What Investment – London cycling faces a bright future

University of Bristol – Soapbox science comes to Bristol

View from Online – SOMERSET: Sport England funding to help get Somerset residents active

Daily Mail – Do you have a ‘flecks complex’: How dandruff drives 1 in 3 of us to dodge social situations

Electronics – Intelligent software testing conference in Bristol

Times Higher Education – Offa launches review of bursary impact

Planning Resource – RTPI launches future planners bursary scheme

Bristol Post – Miranda Hart hints that hit TV comedy which bears her name could return to our screens

Montgomery Advertiser – Men and body image: they just want to work out

Daily Record – Watch Ariana Grande test the latest in musical technology - the mimu glove - in Glasgow

Business Leader - Young property stars to represent South West in national property competition

Independent – Does being beautiful get you further in life

Bristol Post – World number 1 Mohamed El Shorbagy happy to be a Bristolian

Independent – Arts Impact Fund: a radical new way of getting extra funding for the arts

Broadcast

Dr Ailie Turton (HSC) was interviewed about the Soft Robotics for Independent living project (EPSRC funded), on Bristol Community Radio, on a programme for older people. A recording of the programme is on the broadcast list on the programme’s website. Listen in here - <http://bcfmradio.com/silversound> 10.00, 5/6/15.