

Media Summary 5 – 11 September 2015

Coverage

BBC Online – Bristol Robotics Laboratory tests helper bots in replica flat

Bristol Post – Elected mayor helped Bristols leadership

Times Higher Education – What are you reading?

The Guardian – How adventurer Bear Grylls took American TV, and Barack Obama, by storm

Insider Media – UWE launches £4m fund

Daily News Sri Lanka – Adyapana 2015: will take you places

Broadcast

Dr Praminda Caleb-Solly was interviewed at the opening of the new Anchor Robotics Facility in the Bristol Robotics Laboratory by BBC Points West, Made in Bristol TV and SAM Breeze FM. BBC Breakfast national news also recorded interviews for broadcast during next week's Robotics week.

Dr Mary Young (Law) was interviewed by BBC Radio Wiltshire about financial fraud and victims of scams, the news article looked at whether postal scams were on the increase and Mary gave advice on how to avoid becoming a victim of fraud.

Professor Robin Hambleton was interviewed by Sam FM about the findings of the Mayoral governance in Bristol report.

Professor Martin Boddy was interviewed by Sam/Breeze FM about the £4m business funding.