

Media Summary 9 - 15 Jan 2016

UWE Bristol News

Coverage

ITV West – New buses switch to electric power in polluted areas

South West Business – Physiotherapist launches app to help people manage recovery from back pain

Bristol Post – UWE student from Bristol to show of work at London Fashion Week

Bristol Post – New direction for popular Bristol artist Angie Kenber

Guardian – A wholesale power grab: how the UK government is handing housing over to private developers

TechSpark – New sensor designed Bristol can help reduce carbon footprint planes

Independent – Only you can save the world

Independent – Some grand designs for life

Nursing Times – Bristol nursing academic wins leadership scholarship

Guardian – Diabetes the scourge of city living

Business Leader – UWE launches platform startups

Broadcast

Made in Bristol TV came in today to interview Graham Mimms (Intercede Ventures) and Richard Luxton (HAS) about the aircraft cleaning technology, the interview was broadcast on Monday see here 06/01/16 part 2, starting 5 min in.

Professor Alan Winfield (FET) appeared on BBC R4's The Infinite Monkey Cage hosted by Brian Cox and Robin Ince. Listen in to hear Alan talking about swarm robots used to model social behaviour of ants - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b06wcsng#play>

Janet Askew (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio Merseyside and Radio City about the planning in Liverpool.

Dr James Hoggett (HAS) was interviewed and appeared on BBC Points West discussing Police and Crime Commissioners.