

Media Coverage Summary 17-23 September 2016

News

Future Space at UWE Bristol opens for business

Film created for UWE history project in running for prestigious award

Family of woman saved by UWE Bristol graduate treat him to return theatre visit

Coverage

Independent – Why practice focused courses add up for accounting students

Daily Express – 'The death of a close friend inspired me to get healthy', says foodie Niomi Smart

Guardian - Do no harm, don't discriminate: official guidance issued on robot ethics

Business Leader – Clive Lewis OBE appointed to UWE Board of Governors

South China Morning Post - Gieves & Hawkes' new design director on Tom Ford, Savile Row and China

Independent - The five things you ought to include \(and two things you must avoid\) when preparing your CV

Nursing Times – Student nurse thanked for lifesaving act I theatre
<https://www.nursingtimes.net/news/education/student-nurse-thanked-for-lifesaving-act-in-theatre/7010721.article>

University of Queensland – Feel good research helps children with altered appearance

PC Mag – British philosophers consider the ethics of a robotic future

Broadcast

Dr Kieran McCartan (HAS) was interviewed by BBC Points West and BBC Wiltshire Drivetime about Christopher Halliwell case and conviction.