

Media Summary 30 April – 6 May 2016

Coverage

BASW - BASW calls for evidence on the role of the social worker in adoption

Bristol Post – Bristol MP and university chief divided over plans to scrap bursaries for student nurses

MSN.com – This weird slimy single cell organism can learn without a brain

Bristol Post – Why your second preference vote will probably decide the outcome of the Mayoral Election

Telegraph - Using psychology in the workplace

Bristol Post – Arnolfini only South West attraction nominated for museum of the year

Building 4 Education.com – UWE new build on track

University Business – UWE new build on track

EdQuarter – UWE new build on track

Medical Express – New training could help health workers support millions across Europe with body image fears

Bristol University – University debates problematic legacy of Bristol philanthropist and slave trader

EdQuarter – Boost for inclusive sport at UWE Bristol

Broadcast

Dr Madge Dresser (ACE) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about slave trader and merchant Edward Colston.

Roger Conlon (ACE) was interviewed by Laura Rowling for BBC Radio Bristol about the anniversary of the death of Leonardo da Vinci.

Dr Lisa Harrison (ACE) was interviewed by Bristol Post and ITV West Country discussing the mayoral elections.

Dr Heidi Williamson (CAR) as interviewed by Breeze/Jack FM in Bristol about new training that could help health workers support millions across Europe with body image fears.