

Media Summary 6 -12 Feb 2016

Coverage

Research into non-invasive diagnostic testing for prostate cancer carried out by Professor Norman Ratcliffe (HAS) and team was reported extensively worldwide; examples of the coverage can be seen in The Daily Mail, Bristol Post, Healthline News, Daiji World (India), Fox News (New York), New Kerla (Washington). Norman was also interviewed by BBC Points West (available on iPlayer watch 11:45 mins), BBC Radio Bristol and Breeze FM.

Student Science – Powered by Poop and Pee – Professor Ioannis Ieropoulos (BRL)

Builder and Engineer - WSP Parsons Brinckerhoff lands Bristol Enterprise Zone design role

Bristol Post – Prison only makes you a 'harder criminal' admits Class A drug dealer – Film and Journalism students

ITV West – New research tackles urban gulls – Dr Chris Pawson (HSS)

Thinking Highways – FLOURISH: TSS wins role in UK consortium to lead R&D in user-centric connected autonomous vehicles

Independent – Career takes flight with aerospace placement

Independent – Going green: how universities are tackling sustainability

Bristol Post – Front page – The bionic breakthrough in Bristol could save NHS millions – Dr Jason Mansell (HAS)

Broadcast

BBC Radio Somerset reported on research by Dr Chris Pawson (HSS) and students looking into the behaviour of urban gulls in Bath.

BBC Radio 5 Live interviewed Dr Rona Lockyer-Sheppard (HAS) and Teresa Shalofsky (HAS) regarding the resilience programme helping students with 'Mental Wealth'.