

Media Coverage Summary 8-14 October 2016

News

Exclusive view of the Living Brick

BRL Professor is one of RoboHub's 25 Women in Robotics you need to know about

UWE academic speaks up for women mathematicians

UWE Bristol expert available for media interviews in connection with reported rape cases

Health professionals sought for study by world's largest cleft research programme

UWE Bristol welcomes Government's EU student funding pledge

Bristol Distinguished Address Series: the certain challenge of managing in uncertain times

London's road congestion: Be careful what you wish for

Coverage

DPA – Gain more control and accuracy when designing

South West Business – Businesses should wake up to danger of cyber crime say UWE experts

Bristol Business News – Bristol to host first festival of leadership to inspire collaboration and innovation

Western Eye – Meet the employers fair

South West Business – Royal Society of Arts boss tells UWE audience of Brexit shock

Financial Times – MPs call for UK to launch artificial intelligence commission

BBC Online – Bristol hosts 'Oscars' for wildlife TV stars

The Bookseller – “Ask for help”: What can publishing learn from REACT hub experiment

Ceylon Daily News - City School of Architecture celebrates 30 years of excellence

Broadcast

Dr James Hoggett, Senior Lecturer in Criminology (HAS), was interviewed on BBC Radio West Midlands about security and safety issues surrounding the forthcoming Birmingham City v Aston Villa derby and the decision made by the police and club to reduce the crowd capacity for the match.

Lynn Barlow, Director of Creative Industries was interviewed by BBC Points West at the Wildscreen Festival. Speaking to the BBC Business Correspondent Dave Harvey, Lynn explained that Bristol is the global leader for natural history filmmaking and research done at UWE shows that the industry is worth £20m per year to the Bristol Economy.

Professor of Criminal Justice Phil Rumney (FBL) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about reported rape statistics released this week from Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC). Phil is also scheduled to be interviewed by Made in Bristol TV.

Tom Appleby (FET) was interviewed by Dutch National TV Nieuwsuur discussing the international law surrounding the Brexit and EU Common fisheries policy.

Monthly published coverage totals for September 2016

Total articles published during September - 422

Total circulation – 123,760,220

Advertising Value Equivalent (AVE) – £1,468,365

Sourced by Gorkana