

Media Summary 11-17 October 2014

Coverage

Western Daily Press – So you really think you know about Cary Grant?

Bristol Post – VIDEO: Chief executive tells of recovery from £535m of debt

Western Daily Press – QinetiQ chief executive Leo Quinn poached by Balfour Beatty

ITV – UWE careers fair buzzing as South West unemployment falls

Impact Nottingham – What varsity means to sport

CBI – New chair for the CBI South West

South West Business – How do we let our city grow without traffic strangling us all

Media Appearances

Dr Tim Chatterton from Geography and Environmental Management was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about general air quality in Bath and Bristol and 20mph speed limits.

Dr Phillippa Diedrichs from the Centre for Appearance Research was interviewed by the BBC in relation to the launch of the new national campaign for Body Confidence 'Be Real' this was aired on BBC Bristol, Suffolk, Solent, Stoke, Shropshire, West Midlands, Devon, Cornwall, Scotland, Wales, Berkshire, Cambridge. There was also a piece on BBC news online <http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/health-29569473>.

Dr Jo Barnes from the Air Quality Management Resource Centre was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol Breakfast programme about air quality issues in Bristol. Jo also gave a live interview to BBC Sunday Politics West about air quality issues in Bath.

The Employers Fair organised by Careers was featured on ITV West Country, Maggie Westgarth, Head of Employability and Enterprise was interviewed by ITV's Richard Payne in an article that looked at the upturn in national employment figures. Richard also interviewed several UWE students and employers at the Fair.