

Media Summary 8-14 November 2014

Coverage

Western Daily Press – Charlie Mayfield: WDP Editor Ian Mean's exclusive interview with chairman of the John Lewis Partnership

MSN – Pitch at the Palace – Reach Robotics

Stowe – Government launches two domestic violence initiatives

The Guardian – The rise of women drink drivers

The Guardian - Women in wartime: the rise of the female public servant

Medical Express – Molecular breakthrough could halt the spread of prostate cancer

The Times – Students' lessons on sexual consent

NICE Org – Bystander interventions: a new approach to reduce domestic violence in universities

Silobreaker – Molecular breakthrough could halt spread of prostate cancer

Independent – Prostate cancer could be halted by injections

Western Daily Press – West scientists' prostate cancer breakthrough

NHS – Genes tweaked to starve cancer cells

Science World Report – Molecular breakthrough may help prevent the spread of prostate cancer

Pitch@thePalace – Reach Robotics was covered by MSN, Daily Motion, Victory Report, One News Page, The Needs,

University Business – UWE Bristol adds cutting edge Avid S6

Tech Times - Prostate cancer treatment breakthrough: Tumor growth can be switched off with a jab

Media Appearances

Silas Adekunle of Reach Robotics based in Bristol Robotics Laboratory was interviewed by CNN following the Pitch at the Palace.