Go Global Week, car parking, Students' Union ByElections, tea-time jazz and more // View in a browser

Go Global Week is taking place the first week of November - UWE will be highlighting the range of global opportunities available to you, to study, work or volunteer abroad. Going global can make a huge difference to your outlook and future career.

Hear what UWE students had to say about their time abroad in our Go Global film.

We'll be running a series of events to help you find out more, including our Go Global Fair on Wednesday 4 November. There's plenty of support available if you do decide to go global, both with your application and financially.

If going global isn't for you, take a look at the intercultural activities on offer - meet people from all over the world on campus, through events celebrating the food, music, language and customs of different countries.

Student car parking update: Car Park 20

Until the end of this term, there may be times where Car Park 20 (Frenchay Campus) reaches capacity (800 spaces).

If you are driving to campus, please continue to go to Car Park 20 as this is still your best option for parking.

If you are car sharing, you are able to use Car Park 1.

If Car Park 20 is full, there will be staff to direct you to alternative parking areas on campus. Please make sure you allow enough time to get to your lectures. We apologise for any inconvenience caused by this.

Further information is available on our travel update webpage. Any questions? Get in contact with Car Parking.

Better Together Fund drop-in

Staff are running a drop-in to give you the heads-up on what financial support is available through the Better Together Fund.

Come and learn how to apply for a student experience grant or student volunteering grant and hear about previous recipients.

The team will be on hand on Wednesday 28 October between 11:00 and 14:00 at Frenchay Students' Union (Building 1) to answer questions and offer advice on your application.

Unwind with tea-time jazz

The Centre for Performing Arts will be holding two chill out sessions a week in the new Students' Union at Frenchay - a great way to unwind after lectures.

Tea Time Jazz – Mondays 17:00-18:00.
Expect smooth vocal and instrumental standards ranging from the swing period all the way through to Bebop.

Acoustic Sessions – Wednesdays 17:00-18:00. Music in a raw and unplugged style.

Study Spaces

Do you need:

- to book a room for a group project you're working on
- somewhere quiet to study when the Library is full
- to borrow a laptop?

We have spaces and facilities across all campuses that you can book or just turn up and use.
