Celebrating UWE Talent

Congratulations to all students who won at this year's Celebrating UWE Talent Awards! Our annual event honours those of you who have excelled in work-based employability opportunities, such as placements, internships and volunteering.

Winners and runners-up received a cash prize and official recognition from the University. We're really proud of all of our finalists – have a look at them receiving their awards on our Flickr gallery.

Do you want to win next year?

If you're currently on placement, volunteering, working towards your Futures Award or taking part in other work-based employability activities, you could be in with a chance! We'll let you know key dates for the 2016/17 Awards over the next few months.

Changes to our website

As part of the roll out of our new brand identity, the UWE Bristol website will be undergoing a change next week. So, keep an eye out - above is a sneak peak (and subject to change before go-live)!

Let the web team know how you get on with the new look - and if there's any information you couldn't find. Also, if you're interested, they'd like to meet with some of you to get some feedback on the changes, so get in contact if you'd like to take part.

Would you like to study film, TV or games in China?

The BAFTA Scholarship Programme in China is offering talented British nationals the chance to study film, television, or games as an international student in China.

There's £10,000 up-for-grabs for living expenses. If you're interested apply online by Friday 1 April.

Reasonable adjustments deadline

If you're entitled to exam adjustments (e.g. extra time), check the myUWE 'Personal Details' tab to confirm your adjustments are in place. If they aren't showing, please make an appointment with the Disability Service by Friday 1 April to arrange these for your summer exams. If you have any questions, just contact Disability.Advisers@uwe.ac.uk

Disability Awareness Month

Throughout April, UWE Bristol and The Students' Union at UWE will be showcasing the range of support available for students with disabilities, and will be running events, workshops and competitions as part of Disability Awareness Month.

There's a poster competition and poetry competition running - both open until Thursday 7 April.

RAG (Raising and Giving)

Friday 11 March - Friday 18 March is RAG Week - your chance to get involved with fundraising on campus.

The Students' Union at UWE are planning loads of activities throughout the week - it's going to be a week of FUNdraising!

Let us know via this short form if you want to get involved or find out more.

Feel Good February - remember to hand in your loyalty card

Roadworks in Stapleton

We're sure you've noticed - but there are roadworks currently taking place on Park Road by the mini-roundabout near Glenside, causing significant traffic delays.

These works are beyond our control, but we would advise you to allow additional time to journeys to and from Glenside until the works are finished (Friday 15 April).

If you have any questions about travelling to UWE Bristol, get in touch with our transport team.

Dual-diagnosis talk

The Occupational Therapy Society is hosting a talk entitled 'The dual diagnosis talk: co-existing mental health and alcohol and drug problems', including approaches to therapy, recovery, lived experience and much more!

Thursday 10 March, 17:00-18:00, 1B23, Glenside Campus

This counts as CPD and you'll get a certificate for your attendance.
