The end of term is just a few weeks away, and we can't believe how quickly it's gone!

Of course, the end of term usually brings assessments with it, so if you've got a deadline coming up we hope things are going well. And if you're particularly proud of a piece of work you've done this term, why not present it at our Student Conference? We've got all the details below.

Only a few more weeks until you get a long Christmas break - hang in there!

Do you need a replacement student card?

You can order a new student card through our online store and pick it up from an Information Point. You'll need it if you have exams.

Preparing for assessments

Problem with an assessment?

Take a look at the support processes that could help. We recommend you contact an Information Point for advice before applying - the earlier we know about a problem the sooner we can help.

Plan your assignments

Create a personalised schedule for each of your written assignments with our planning tool. Great if you've got a deadline coming up and you're not sure where to start!

Entitled to exam adjustments?

Check the myUWE Personal Details tab to confirm they're in place. If they aren't showing, contact the Disability Service by Friday 1 December to make sure everything's ready for your January exams.

Make the most of assessment feedback

It's useful to look back at any feedback you've already had about your work so that you know where you could improve. Find out how to make the most of your feedback.

Improve your confidence

Our emotional resilience workshops are led by students to help you develop the confidence you need to succeed. You'll learn 7 key skills of emotional resilience and be ready to tackle any challenges that come your way.

The last workshops before Christmas will take place on Wednesday 29 November or Tuesday 5 December at Bower Ashton, or Wednesday 6 December at Frenchay or Glenside.

Share your work at our annual Student Conference

Our annual Student Conference celebrates the work of undergraduate and postgraduate taught students from all years and all disciplines.

Share your work through a presentation or poster – it can be work you've already completed or a new idea that you have. There will be prizes for the best posters and presentations.

It's a great experience and an opportunity for you to show off a piece of work that you're proud of – so get involved!

Submit a 300 word abstract

Be part of your community

Donate something for charity

Caring in Bristol supports 500 homeless and vulnerable people in Bristol over the festive period. You can help by donating items such as non-perishable foods, socks and toiletries – it's as easy as adding an extra item to your shopping basket!

Find a donation point on campus

Volunteer your time this Christmas

Many charities need a helping hand over the festive period, so why not spend a day helping others?

COULD YOU LEAD THE STUDENTS' UNION?

Our annual Elections are coming up in March and registration is now open to put yourself forward to be a leader of The Students' Union. You'll have the chance to influence life at UWE Bristol, campaign on the issues that matter and represent students nationally at the top level of the University.

It's a once in a lifetime experience. If you see yourself as one of next year's Officers put yourself forward now! Or if you know someone who would make a great leader, recommend them.

SAVE THE DATE: ACCOMMODATION FAIR

If you're thinking about accommodation for next year, don't panic! There's still plenty of time to find your new home. We're running our annual Accommodation Fair on Thursday 25 January to help you.

With local accommodation providers, private landlords and utility companies all on hand to offer you information and advice, come along between 12:00 and 15:00.

Check out The Students' Union Advice Centre for some helpful information in the meantime.

IT'S OKAY NOT TO BE OKAY THIS CHRISTMAS

Christmas is coming, and it's important to remember that for some it's a stressful, sad and lonely time of year. So look out for those around you and make sure that they know it's okay not to be okay this Christmas.

On Monday 4 December myself, Erin and Jamie will be walking around Frenchay Campus giving out information on what support is available over Christmas. We'll be the three elves handing out candy canes! We're also working with Kooth, a free online counselling and emotional wellbeing platform for young people.
