Description

KEDGE Business School is a triple accredited global Business school (EQUIS, AACSB and AMBA) in France with campuses in Bordeaux, Marseille, other locations around France and internationally. Its Erasmus courses are taught in English and the university welcomes over 1000 new international students every year.

The university offers airport pick-up services for both of its campuses and each of them has its own international student organisation who help students integrate by organising activities throughout the year.

Surrounding Area

Bordeaux is located in the South west of France and is one of Bristol's twin cities. It is the hub of the wine growing region and has a population just over half the size of Bristol. It is a 6 hour train journey from London and 2 hours from Paris.

Marseille is on the South coast in the French Riviera. It is the country's second largest city and was European capital of culture in 2013. It is also France's largest port for trade and cruise ships.

Accommodation

On campus accommodation is only available at the Marseille campus but students going to Bordeaux will be given assistance in finding private accommodation through state-owned residences, private residences and private landlords. Early application is advised. Costs vary between €350-€700 per month.

How to Apply

When successfully selected by UWE and nominated to KEDGE you will need to complete an online application process.

- Copy of Passport
- Transcripts
- Application Form

Deadline: 15th May
