Description

Montpellier Business School is a triple accredited business school (AACSB, AMBA, EPAS) that hosts over 1000 international students and has over 70 nationalities on campus. International students are welcomed with an airport pick-up service and also support students in opening a bank account as well as setting up internet and utilities. The school is set in a 6-acre wooded campus, 20 minutes from the beach and 3 miles from the centre of Montpellier. It is served by regular buses to the city centre.

Surrounding Area

Montpellier is France's 8th largest city located on the south coast, overlooking the Mediterranean sea. Nearly one third of the population are students and the city is considered a cultural hub frequently hosting sporting and cultural events. It is France's fastest growing city and one of the most multicultural in the country outside Paris.

It is a short distance from the north of Spain to the west and the north of Italy to the east.

Accommodation

University accommodation is not provided but several support services are available to help students find private accommodation.
