Description

The University of Bologna, founded in 1088, is the oldest University in the Western world. It is also one of the largest in Europe. Each year they accept approximately 2,500 incoming exchange students to study across the institution.

The University's Architecture and Planning modules are mostly taught in Cesena, 90km from Bologna.

Surrounding Area

Bologna is the capital city of the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy and is neatly situated a short distance away from Milan, Florence, Venice and San Marino.

Nearby Cesena is a small town with a population of 97,000. Just 15km from the Adriatic, this Roman town is home to many historical sites and is surrounded by fantastic landscapes. The coastal resort towns of Rimini, Pesaro and Cesenatico nearby, and major cities are in easy reach.

Accommodation

Support and advice in finding accommodation in Cesena can be found on Unibo's website: <https://www.unibo.it/en/campus-cesena/campus-services/accommodation-and-residences-cesena>. Prices range from EUR380/month to up to EUR550/month excluding bills.
