

English Language Library Resources

Newspapers	Print: The Library subscribes to several English language newspapers including The Times and The Guardian. The current issues are at the back of Level 2. Electronic: The database Nexis gives full-text access to all English language national newspapers and many local newspapers such as the Bristol Evening Post. You can access this at http://www.uwe.ac.uk/library/elibrary/. You will need your UWE network username and password.
Magazines	English language magazines available in the Library include New Statesman and Society, The Economist and Venue. The current issues can be found on Level 3 by the comfy seating area and are for reference only.
Film DVDs	There are a large range of English language films on Level 5 which can be borrowed. You can also view them on one of the televisions in the Library.
Grammar books, Dictionaries and Language packs	Print: Grammar books and language packs are on Level 4 of the Library at shelf number 425 and can be borrowed. If you would like to use a language pack in the library there are computers available in the PC lab 4D29. You may need headphones and these can be borrowed from the Short Loan Area on Level 2. Electronic: The Library provides access to Oxford Language Dictionaries Online, which provides bilingual dictionaries into English from Chinese, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Russian. You can access this at http://www.uwe.ac.uk/library/elibrary/. You will need your UWE network username and password.

For more help with accessing language resources contact us at <http://www1.uwe.ac.uk/library/help/askalibrarian.aspx>