

Bristol Centre for Economics and Finance Seminar Series

Semester One 2018/19

Every Thursday at 16:00 in room 4X106

Date	Speaker	Topic
27/09/2018	Steven J. Bosworth (University of Reading)	"Organizational Ethics, Narratives and Social Dysfunctions"
04/10/2018	Richard Waller (UWE - ACE - Education and Childhood)	"Entering and travelling through university, and joining the graduate labour market: The challenge of social class inequalities"
11/10/2018	Mary Wrenn (UWE)	"Consecrating Capitalism: the US Prosperity Gospel and Neoliberalism"
18/10/2018	Natalya Naqvi (LSE)	"State directed credit under economic globalisation: Developmental policy autonomy and business power in Bolivia"
25/10/2018	Sara Stevano (UWE)	"Global production, PPPs and work: A research plan for the cashew-nut processing industry in Mozambique"
01/11/2018	Annie Tubadji (UWE)	"IKIGAI: A Local or Universal Factor for Happiness and Productivity?"
08/11/2018	Lotta Takala-Greenish (UWE)	"Work organisation and structure across the formal and informal divide: insights from micro-small- and medium-sized enterprises in South African clothing and waste recycling"
15/11/2018	Rob Calvert Jump (UWE)	"Reconsidering the natural rate hypothesis", co-authored with Engelbert Stockhammer
22/11/2018	Cléo Chassonnery-Zaigouche (University of Lausanne)	"Economists in Courts: Credibility, Value Judgements and Epistemic Power"
29/11/2018	Lukaz Hardt (Warsaw University)	"Economics without Laws"
06/12/2018	Antonio Savoia (University of Manchester)	"Is there a fiscal resource curse? Resource rents, fiscal capacity and political institutions?"