

Workshop on

History, money and the macroeconomy: Discussing recent trends in contemporary political economy

Thursday 28 June 2018

Bristol Business School, Accounting, Economics and Finance Department

Room 5X104

UWE Bristol (Frenchay Campus)

This workshop addresses new research frontiers in pluralistic economics, expanding the connections between UWE Bristol and Panthéon-Sorbonne University (Paris). It relies on the interaction between political economists and young scholars, seeking to promote strong research networks and consolidating already established ties.

Schedule:

9-9.30am –Welcome from Departmental Leaders & Presentation from Organizing Committee

9.30-11am –Presentations I – Critical macroeconomics:

- Francesco Sergi (Paris 1/University of Bristol) “The DSGE Models and the Lucas Critique. A Historical Appraisal” (Discussant: Jo Michell)
- Aurélien Goutsmedt (Paris 1) “Robert Gordon and the Integration of the Natural Rate of Unemployment in a Keynesian Framework” (Discussant: Lotta-Takala Greenish)
- Daniel Bastidas (Paris 1) “The GEMMES project, an application to Brazil” (Discussant: Danielle Guizzo)

11.30am-1pm – Presentations II – Financialisation:

- Sudeep Jain (UWE Bristol) “Demonetisation in India and The Rise of Digital Financialisation” (Discussant: Susan Newman)
- Guillaume Kremer (Paris 1, CES) and BT “Financial innovations and macroeconomic stability, an assessment of securitization and coco-bonds” (Discussant: Yannis Dafermos)
- Susan Newman (UWE) “The making of a global commodity: a political economy of dairy restructuring” (Discussant: Aurélien Goutsmedt)

1.30pm-2.30pm – Lunch

2.30pm-4.30pm - Presentations III – Ideology, power and the role of the state:

- Aurélien Goutsmedt (Paris 1), Danielle Guizzo (UWE) and Francesco Sergi (Paris 1/University of Bristol) “Neutralizing Ideology with Science: Robert E. Lucas Jr. in the Public Debate” (Discussant: Susan Newman)

- Lotta Takala-Greenish (UWE) “Exploring worker power across formal and informal small and micro-enterprises: insights from work organisation in wastecollection, essential oils and clothing sectors in South Africa” (Discussant: Francesco Sergi)
- Nicolas Pinsard (Paris 13) and BT “The Birth of the State between the Administration and Finance: on the Venality of Offices in France in the 16th and 17th Centuries” (Discussant: Mary Wrenn)
- Jo Michell (UWE) (w/ Cahal Moran) “Reinventing the heterodox wheel: mainstream macroeconomics since the crisis” (Discussant: Bruno Tinel)

4.45pm-5.45pm – Roundtable discussion: building new pluralistic research frontiers

6pm-7pm – Welcome Drinks at the UWE SU, followed by dinner at the city centre

Workshop organisation:

- Bruno Tinel (Paris 1, CES, UWE) Bruno.Tinel@univ-paris1.fr
- Danielle Guizzo (UWE) Danielle.Guizzoarchela@uwe.ac.uk
- Funding: Bristol Centre for Economics and Finance (BCEF) & Accounting, Economics and Finance (AEF) Department