

Centre for Transport and Society

2019 Spring Conference Programme

16th May 2019 9:00-16:00 (followed by wine reception)

Room 4Q56, Frenchay Campus, UWE Bristol

Time	Presenter	Title
09:00-09:20	Registration & Coffee	Room 4Q69
09:20-09:30	Graham Parkhurst	Introduction
09:30-09:50	Glenn Lyons	Walking as a Service - does it have legs?
09:50-10:10	Tom Calvert et al.	New Opportunities for On-demand Shared-ride Services to Deliver Modal Shift and Inclusive Travel
10:20-10:40	Daniela Paddeu et al.	Passenger Comfort and Trust on First-time Use of a Shared Autonomous Shuttle Vehicle
10:40-11:00	John Parkin et al.	Trust ratings of cyclist and pedestrian encounters with autonomous vehicles
11:00-11:20	All speakers	Q&As
11:20-11:40	Tea/Coffee Break	Room 4Q69
11:40-12:00	Steve Melia	Why Did UK Governments Cut Road Building in the 1990s and Increase it After 2010?
12:00-12:20	Graham Parkhurst	The (In)justice of Clean Air Zones
12:20-12:30	All speakers	Q&As
12:30-13:45	Lunch	Room 4Q69
13:45-14:05	Jonathan Flower & John Parkin	Understanding attitudes to priorities at side road junctions
14:05-14:25	Fiona Crawford	Examining intrapersonal variability in commuting behaviour using travel diary data
14:25-14:45	Kiron Chatterjee	Young People's Travel – What's Changed, Why and the Implications
14:45-15:00	All speakers	Q&As
15:00-15:15	Tea/Coffee Break	Room 4Q69
15:15-15:55	Helen Bowkett & Glenn Lyons	Panel debate: Is it appropriate in transport scheme appraisal to have a central projection (or 'most likely') forecast of road traffic?
15:55-16:00	Graham Parkhurst	Conference close
16:00-17:00	Wine reception	Room 4Q69