

Criteria for the Best Practice Award

- Uses knowledge of the student's stage of learning to select appropriate learning opportunities to meet individual needs.
- Able to meet individual learning needs by employing a range of facilitation approaches
- Able to foster an effective learning environment
- Demonstrates the qualities of an effective role model
- Communicates honestly with students in order to provide constructive feedback on role performance
- Supports students in enhancing their performance and capabilities for safe and effective practice and is clear and constructive in action planning
-
- Identifies and applies research and evidence-based information nursing practice.
- Demonstrates an understanding of practice assessment strategies
- Able to make fair and just decisions in regard to a student's practice knowledge and competence.