Before you start

We are looking forward to welcoming you in the week commencing 15 September for Starting Block and the beginning of your programme.

Engage with your programme

Read around your subject

To succeed within your chosen programme you will need to think critically about key issues and practices. Here are some books and resources to help you to understand the scope of your programme:

Porter and Strategy as Choice

If you would like to explore the ideas of Michael Porter, it is certainly worth looking at one (or more) of these books:

- Mintzberg, H., Ahlstrand, B. and Lampel, J. (1998) Strategy Safari, New York: FreePress
- Porter, M.E. (1980) Competitive Strategy, New York: Free Press
- Porter, M.E. (1985) Competitive Advantage: Creating and Sustaining SuperiorPerformance, New York: Free Press

Competitive Advantage and RBV

Firms compete in a dynamic and often turbulent environment where innovation, timely decision making and change is needed to stay ahead of the competition. Take a look at these books to find out more about how firms can do this:

- Priem, R.L. and Butler, J.E. (2001) Is the Resource-Based View A Useful Perspectivefor Strategic Management Research, 26, 1, 23-40
- Teece, D., & Pisano, G. (1994). The dynamic capabilities of firms: An introduction. Industrial and Corporate Change, 3(3): 537-556.

Innovation and Value Innovation

For reading on Blue Ocean Strategy it is worth looking at Chan Kim and Rene Mauborgne's book of that title:

- Kim, W. C. and Mauborgne (2005) Blue Ocean Strategy, Boston: HBS Press
- If you are interested in disruptive innovation and the innovators dilemma here is a video of Clay Christensen explaining his theory.

Managing Organisation Change

For this module, we recommend these references:

- Dawson, P. & Andriopoulos, C. (2017) Managing Change, Creativity and Innovation, 3rd edition, Sage Publications
- Pre-reading: Chapter 1 (Introduction) and Chapter 3 (A Brief History of Management Thought in the Development of Concepts, Thoughts and Theories of Business Practice)

- (We recommend the 3rd 2017 edition of the core text. You can use either the (2017)3rd edition or the (2014) 2nd edition of this Sage Publications core text).

Or

- Dawson, P. & Andriopoulos, C. (2014) Managing Change, Creativity and Innovation, 2nd edition, Sage Publications
- Pre-reading: Chapter 1 (Introduction) and Chapter 2 (A Historical Overview of Business Practice and Theory Development)

Module choices

We have chosen optional modules for you so you will have a complete timetable when you arrive. If you want to, you will be able to change any optional modules in the first weeks. How to do this will be explained in your programme introduction sessions.

Be prepared

Access support

Check the information on our Disability web pages so you know what you need to do. If you need any urgent additional mobility or other support to fully access all activities during your studies, contact me as your programme leader.

Get equipped

The University provides computers on all our campuses for you to use in your studies. These computers will provide access to our core digital education tools and any specialist software required for your course. You may have scheduled sessions in computer labs or other specialist facilities, and you will be able to use open-access PCs for self-study.

Many students will benefit from access to a laptop, particularly if your access to campus is limited. The university licenses many specialist software packages for use on personal laptops for the duration of your course.

The core software used in your course may include:
Blackboard, Collaborate, Panopto, Microsoft 365 (formerly Office 365), PebblePad, SPSS.
These packages will run on Windows devices but not on tablets or Chromebooks.

We recommend that you have access to a device with the Core Specification detailed in the link below. For better performance and speed, you may want to consider a higher spec laptop with Enhanced or Intensive Specifications.

See the UWE website for detailed information on choosing your IT equipment including recommended specifications.

International students

The Global Student Support Team offer information and advice to ensure you receive all the support you need to get the best from your time at UWE Bristol. They are here to help you to settle in when you first arrive at UWE Bristol and organise social events to help you to adapt to your new environment.

Next steps

Before you arrive, you will receive an online workbook to introduce you to the School and help you to prepare for university life. You can go through the workbook then, and it will be revisited during your induction activities.
