

Media Coverage Summary 8 - 14 September 2018

Latest announcements

Student mental health supported by new technology

1831 RIOT! app to retell the story of uprising in Bristol's Queen Square

Coverage and staff in the media

Bath Echo – University collaboration million pound creative investment

EdQuarter – AHRC fund industries cluster programme for Bristol and Bath

Independent – Students should declare eating disorders and self-harm under reformed UCAS forms, university boss says

Thornbury Gazette – Former Thornbury students wins award for her clothing company

The Himalayan Times – The British College confers degree to 225 graduating students

Gazette Series – UWE's digital media studios named the best educational building in the West Country

Commercial News Media - Appointment of former sandwich student highlights placement benefits

Sharon Wheeler, (ACE) interviewed Peter Dennis the Chair of the British Cave Rescue Council about the part they played in the Thai cave rescue. The unsung band of volunteers pulled out all the stops to ensure the divers were equipped with kit essential to the rescue. The exclusive report can be viewed on the Darkness Below.

MA Wildlife Filming student Natalie Rance was interviewed by BBC Points West about how she had to have a cornea transplant after contracting a rare infection, Acanthamoeba Keratitis, after wearing contact lenses whilst swimming. Read her story on BBC Online and see the interview here.

ITV West Country came to the Welcome event in the ECC today (14/09/18), filming Steve West who gave a presentation to parents and supporters about the wide range of services and help available to students. This will be broadcast on Monday.

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

Copyright 2016 © UWE Bristol