

Media Coverage Summary 10-16 June

Press releases

Biggest Pee Power urinal to date located near Pyramid Stage

3D facial recognition technology on brink of commercial breakthrough

Young engineers face drone 'fly-off' challenge

Technology which makes electricity from urine also kills pathogens, researchers find

Coverage

Bristol Post - Bristol scientists have developed 3D facial recognition technology which could replace credit cards and passports

SputnikNews.com – Real-Life Robocops

Huffington Post – UK leading the way in facial recognition technology

Insider Media – Funding for UWE facial recognition project

iNews – Home Office lifts deportation threat on award winning graduate helping Parkinsons suffers

AN – Degree Shows 2017: collaborative power play, fab knitting and plasticine blobs

The Engineer – Energy generating biotech shown to kill pathogens

Computer Weekly - Beer, pee and charge phone

South West Business – University leads on project to develop commercial face recognition system

Broadcast

Sammy Payne from Open Bionics was interviewed in Future Space by BBC 1 Breakfast and ITV News, discussing the world's first clinical trials for 3D printed bionic hands for children, this was also covered by BBC Radio Bristol.

Monthly published coverage totals for May 2017

Total articles published in May - 368

Total circulation – 76,683,612

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £400,674

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

