

Media Coverage Summary 18-24 February 2017

Press releases

Does AI pose a threat to society? Full house for British Academy Debate

Thousands of UWE Bristol students make a difference – Student Volunteering Week 2017

Report recommends BME led voluntary and community organisations for older people work closely with statutory services

Coverage

The Economist – Growing competition between universities is changing student life

3D Printing Industry – Open Bionics awarded \$1million prize for their 3D printed prosthesis

4-Traders – UWE Bristol joins city wide drive to reduce sugar consumption

4RFV.com – RTS West of England awards nominations announced

Tech Spark – UWE Bristol prepares to host national robotics contest final

Bristol Business News – Intrepid wildlife filmmaker snares top UWE award for ultimate endurance challenge

Broadcast

Dr Jo Barnes (FET) was interviewed by BBC Radio 4 Today Programme about the European Commission's 'final warning' to the UK Government on air pollution. Jo was also interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol, live from the City Centre about proposed funding from Bristol City Council to provide a 'Clean Air Zone' in Bristol, listen here (from 43:25). Jo also recorded an interview via Skype for BBC Click to be aired on Breakfast on 4 March.

Professor Alan Winfield (FET) was interviewed by Jim al-Khalili on BBC Radio's 4 The Life Scientific about Robot Ethics, full interview available on iPlayer here. Alan also recorded interviews for BBC Radio Bristol 'Ask the Expert' slot and BBC Radio Humberside.

Dr Praminda Caleb-Solly (FET) was interviewed by BBC World Service CrowdScience, in an article entitled 'Could Robots Care for Older People'. The article will be available for download here on 25/02/17.

Dr Madge Dresser was interviewed on BBC Radio 4 discussing the naming row of the Colston Hall and the links with the slave trade.

Subitha Baghirathan (HAS) will be interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol on Sunday morning about the BME community and dementia report.

Samantha Payne from Open Bionics was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol about £100,000 funding from NHS England to help fund innovations for children living with disabilities.

Monthly published coverage totals for January 2017

Total articles published in January - 327

Total circulation – 136,673,099

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £501,989

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

