

Media Coverage Summary 29 April – 2 May 2017

Press releases

Expert available to comment on the government's consultation on a clean air plan

New approach to tackle air pollution

Idea to harness power from highways earns international economics award

Universities in Bristol call on students to donate rather than ditch unwanted goods

Women treated for breast cancer invited to join body acceptance programme

Coverage

ITV West - Commuters urged to have their say on congestion and air pollution

Bristol 24/7 – New business school opens at UWE

The Scientist – Future homes may have bio-reactive walls

Bristol 24/7 – The Rise of the Robots

Dr Corra Boushel (FET) was interviewed by ITV West Country about the Citizen-led Air Pollution Reduction in Cities (ClairCity Project). Working with Bristol City Council it is hoped that the joint community approach will help tackle the causes of air pollution.

Dr Lisa Harrison (ACE) was interviewed by BBC Radio Somerset discussion the Somerset Country Council Elections.

Monthly published coverage totals for April 2017

Total articles published in April - 413

Total circulation – 103,091,572

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £703,581

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

