

Media Coverage Summary 9 – 15 September 2017

Press Releases

New £9 million building for creative industries opens at UWE Bristol

Living near fast food outlets linked to weight gain in primary school children

In the media ...

The Times – Burger chain nearby makes children fat

Bristol Post – Children living near takeaways more likely to be overweight

The Guardian - Children living near fast food outlets more likely to gain weight – study

Scottish Express – Weight fears for children living near fast food outlets

The Sun – Children who live near fast food outlets are more likely to be fat

The Guardian – Would you want a robot to be your child's best friend?

Institute of Mechanical Engineers – Origami-inspired folding drone could provide vital disaster relief

EdQuarter.com - Hi-tech businesses get free desk space for a year

The Engineer – Professor Chris Melhuish, Director, Bristol Robotics Laboratory

Dr Peter Clegg (HAS) gave more interviews over the weekend about the UK's response to Hurricane Irma, including amongst other; BBC Radio Wales, Coventry, Manchester, Surrey, Leeds and York, listen in here at 1 hr 13. Peter also helped Channel 4 News with information and advice prior for the news programme.

The swarm robotics from Bristol Robotics Laboratory was featured on BBC Click watch here from 21:25 onwards.

Monthly published coverage totals for August 2017

Total articles published in August - 370

Total circulation – 186,701,900

Advertising value equivalent (AVE) - £630,027

Source Gorkana

Links

See the news archive

E-mail: pressoffice@uwe.ac.uk

Tel: +44 (0)117 32 82208

Follow us

