

Media Summary 23 August – 5 September 2014

Coverage

Design Juices – UWE Graphic Design graduate Katie Mitchell

Bristol Post – Survey by UWE Bristol re cyclists and pedestrians

Bristol Post – Tina Selby's laser cutting on show at Zion Community Art Space, Bristol

South West Business – UWE students in Bristol launch Missionly recruitment business

Western Daily Press – UWE VC Professor Steve West does the ALS Ice Bucket Challenge

The Guardian – How to make friends at uni before you get there

Design Week – Good golly Miss Molly – bright, bold new prints

Bristol Post – Bristol robotic hand creator makes final of global contest

Bristol Post – Bristol firms Omnidynamics in running for £50,000 prize

Times Higher Education – The week in Higher Education

The Guardian – Playable cities: the cities that play together stay together

Education Technology – Bristol expands growing tech scene

SiloBreaker – Prosthetic hand project in global finals of Intel Make it Wearable competition

Times Higher Education – Times Higher Education awards 2014 shortlist announced

Media Appearances

Professor Alan Winfield discussed ethical robots on BBC Radio 4 'Today', listen in on iPlayer - 02:42:15 <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b04fz4v8>, the interview was also aired on BBC World Service.

Andy Ridgway was interviewed about science in the news by the James Hazell Show on BBC Radio Suffolk. Andy explained three science stories from the past week for the show ready for broadcast on Saturday.

Made in Manchester interviewed Dr Ioannis Ieropoulos and Professor John Greenman about urine powered robots, the interviews were for a radio programme being aired in Germany.