

Media Summary 13 - 19 Dec 2014

Coverage

Film International - Cinefest 2014: The Eleventh International Festival of German Film Heritage

South West Business - Caroline Norbury is chief executive of Creative England

Guide2Bristol – UWE researcher seeks teenagers for facebook study

Western Daily Press – Bristol is one of the best places to live without a car

University Business – Stopping the robots taking over

Transportxtra - Four cities selected to pilot driverless forms of transport

Times Higher Education - Science and Innovation Strategy launched by government

Develop – Creating our own narratives in the games we play

South West Business – Bristol Post and Bath Chronicle Women in Business Awards Highlighted at Bristol Connected

The Economist – Well Pressed

Media Appearances

Professor Phil Rumney (LAW) was interviewed by BBC Radio 4 for 'The Report' programme which looked at the subject of false rape allegations.

Dr Erik Stengler (Science Communication Unit) has given two interviews to the regional radio show of the Canary Islands. Talking about the science in the movie Interstellar in one interview and about other movies related to science (The Imitation Game, The Theory of Everything and Ex Machina) in the other.