

Media Summary 14 -20 March

Coverage

Swazi Observer – Typists, payphones and printer queues

BBC Online - Bristol study reveals impact of elected mayor on city

Herts 24 - Praise all round follows Knebworth premiere of new play about stately home's stalwart suffragette

Bristol Post – Leadership in Bristol has improved since directly elected Mayor

Bristol Post – UWE unveils its plan for Bower Ashton Campus

Western Daily Press – Pee-power to aid life saving SOS calls

ITV News – Budget Day – all the latest news and reaction here

The Guardian – International projects category award winner and runners-up

Relocate Magazine – New postgraduate loans to grow global talent

Digital Dots – Taking the Ps

Media Appearances

Professor Robin Hambleton (FET) was interviewed by Made In Bristol TV about 'Mayoral leadership in urban England', following an event at the Institute for Government.

Dr Erik Stengler (HAS) was interviewed by the regional radio of the Canary Islands about the 100th anniversary of the Theory of General Relativity.

Dr Jo Barnes (FET) was interviewed by BBC Points West, discussing Air Pollution in Bristol following a report from DEFRA stating that Bristol had the worst air pollution/air quality in the UK that day due to air flow and European Air Pollution.

Open Bionics (BRL) are featured on Sky News programme Swipe talking about their latest design, the whole show was introduced by Robot Thespian. Baxter and Burt the BRL resident robots were also filmed.