

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team 22—28 February 2014

Press and online coverage

Monday 24 February

Education Technology - Bristol's schools embrace digital age

http://edtechnology.co.uk/Featured-Content/bristols_schools_embrace_digital_age

The Guardian – Older models: the women in their 60s, 70s and 80s who are shaking up fashion

<http://www.theguardian.com/fashion/2014/feb/22/older-models-in-fashion>

Tuesday 25 February

Bristol Post – War stories, cricket heros, zoo parties and boom for bikes

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/War-stories-Cricket-hero-zoo-parties-boom-bikes/story-20695451-detail/story.html#>

Wednesday 26 February

Bristol Post – Inspiring Successful women gather to celebrate award

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/Inspiring-Successful-women-gather-celebrate/story-20704334-detail/story.html>

Thursday 27 February

Bristol Post – Bristol Business Post Awards now open

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/Launch-eventBusiness-Awards-2014-open/story-20713403-detail/story.html>

North Devon Journal - £4 million in funding for business innovation

<http://www.northdevonjournal.co.uk/pound-4-million-funding-business-innovation/story-20710635-detail/story.html>

Financial Times Adviser - Bristol: The engine room

<http://www.ftadviser.com/2014/02/27/ifa-industry/companies-and-people/bristol-the-engine-room-k1vn4zz5AW6oHXu1tbk6FO/article-0.html>

Friday 28 February

South West Business - The Bristol Distinguished Executive Address Series: Sir Richard Broadbent, chairman of Tesco PLC

http://southwestbusiness-co-uk.mysmartercms.co.uk/news/28022014080646-the-bristol-distinguished-executive-address-series--sir-richard-broadbent--chairman-of-tesco-plc/?utm_medium=email&utm_source=GloucesterEcho&utm_campaign=3743695_Bristol+Briefing.+28.2.14.&dm_i=1C2H,288NJ,AZCT7C,8217Q,1

Media Appearances

David Proverbs was interviewed by Breeze FM about flooding.

Kent Fedorowich and Charles booth have been working with the BBC on a project launched this week about WW1 see link - <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p01nhwgx>

James Hoggett was interviewed by Jack FM about funding awarded to Avon and Somerset Constabulary and UWE Bristol to help strengthen collaboration between policing and academic establishments.

Chris Spencer was interviewed by Heart Radio Devon about the storms in Dawlish and a new online resource for schools from ETE and UWE Bristol.