

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team 22-28 March 2014

News this week

Monday 24 March

Electronic Specifier – Europe is making a huge impact in printed sensors

Evesham Journal – Intrepid rowers reach dry land

Tuesday 25 March

South West Business – ICAEW and Lloyds bank point to improved business confidence

Bristol Post – Formidable businesswoman sent gifts

Wednesday 26 March

Bristol Post – Optimism tempered by some concerns

The Guardian - How young people, technology and co-op values are creating a better future

Thursday 27 March

South Yorkshire Times – BMJ public health service cash cut

BBC online - Councils diverting public health cash, says journal

Bristol 247 – Memorial ground judge refuses TRASHorfield judicial review appeal

Friday 28 March

BBC Online - Stool test 'accurate for diagnosing bowel diseases'

South West Business – Bristol Distinguished executive address series

South West Business – Bristol Rovers Stadium Trashorfield denied permission to appeal

Bristol Post – Law students delighted with global success

Engineering and Technology Magazine -Computer building blocks made using slime mould

Media Appearances

During the week 10-14 March CBBC Newsround ran a 'robot week', they filmed at BRL and interviewed Alan Winfield, see here <http://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/26503920>.

John Rushforth was interviewed by Breeze/Jack FM giving UWE's reaction to the Inspirational Friends and their quest to row the Atlantic.