

Media Summary 31 Oct – 13 Nov 2015

Coverage

Bristol Post – Squash – Mohamed and Marwan Elshorbagy start world Championship campaign

Society of Radiographers - UK Radiographer and Team of the Year honoured at awards ceremony

Bloomberg – This British property firm helps pad the Queens bank account

Optics Org – Folium Optics brings plastic displays to medical and defense markets

ISBE – Opportunity for fully-funded PhD studentship offered by Faculty of Business and Law at UWE Bristol

In-Cyprus – Local university offers back to its community

BBC Online – The fallout from a social media bombshell

Birmingham Post – Harrison Clark advises aviation deal

Yahoo – Worlds first robot copies human

Arts Council England – Bristol hosts major festival future cities

Arts Council England – Festival of new inventions showcases digital innovation

Reuters India – Acupuncture and Alexander Technique may improve neck pain

Gazette Series – UWE launches project to slash construction waste destined for landfill

Government – Secretary of state brands small business owners as the drivers of economic revival

Broadcast

Dr Charles Booth (FBL) was interviewed by BBC Radio Bristol, Shropshire and Cornwall and Dr Kent Fedorowich (ACE) by BBC Radio Nottingham and Good Morning Jersey on Armistice Day, both talking as consultants on the WW1 at Home series looking into life on the homefront.

Sir Richard Needham the latest speaker at the Bristol Distinguished Address Series was interviewed by Bristol Community Radio BCFM. The theme of his lecture was 'A Tale of Two Cities Bristol and Belfast Past, Present and Future'.

Sean Lannon (BSc Computing for Real-Time Systems graduate) was interviewed by Sam/Jack FM ahead of being part of a crew in the Talisker Whisky Atlantic Challenge.