

Weekly Media Summary from the Media Relations team – 4 November 2013

News this week

UWE Bristol invests in driving simulator

UWE professor launches new book on 3D Printing

Lest we forget: Paul Gough gives lecture on commemorative art in the city

Double success for UWE students at British Book Awards

UWE researchers develop artificial heart to pump human waste to power future robots

Press and online coverage

Monday 4 November

This is the West Country – Wembdon mum publishes fantasy novel

http://www.thisisthewestcountry.co.uk/news/10782732.Wembdon\_mum\_publishes\_fantasy\_novel/

Wednesday 6 November

Bristol Post – Delegates talk business ethics

<http://www.bristolpost.co.uk/Delegates-talk-business-ethics/story-20038042-detail/story.html>

Friday 8 November

New Scientist

<http://www.newscientist.com/article/dn24547-sewagepowered-bot-beats-blockages-with-printed-heart.html>

Laboratory Talk

<http://www.laboratorytalk.com/research-news/human-waste-could-power-future-robots/406189.article>

The Engineer

<http://www.theengineer.co.uk/electronics/news/researchers-give-urine-powered-robot-new-heart/1017443.article>

E Science News

<http://esciencenews.com/articles/2013/11/07/artificial.heart.pump.human.waste.future.robots>

The Register - Urine-powered robot to acquire human-like heart

http://www.theregister.co.uk/2013/11/08/robot\_heart/

Gizmodo - The Robots of the Future could be powered by pee

<http://www.gizmodo.in/science/The-Robots-of-the-Future-Could-Be-Powered-By-Pee/articleshow/25452239.cms>